

MILFORD DOING HER SHARE

Boston Daily Globe (1872-1922); Jun 28, 1898;

ProQuest Historical Newspapers Boston Globe (1872 - 1926)

pg. 4

MILFORD DOING HER SHARE.

Has Filled One Volunteer and One Provisional Company, and Now Hudson Asks Her for Men.

MILFORD, Mass, June 27—Milford is certainly doing her share toward providing soldiers in this war.

In this and adjacent towns a full company of 106 men was raised, Co M, 6th Massachusetts, also a provisional, the 14th, was raised, with 68 officers and men, and now more are being raised for Co M, 5th regiment, of Hudson, whose captain, James F. Clare, desired 25 recruits.

Sergt E. L. Ordway and Corp Porter of Hudson came here today to secure recruits to fill out the quota of that company to 106. They secured a goodly number, and the prospect is good for the requisite number.