

Acton February ye 4: 1748/9

Then Laid out a High way Begining at the Corner Between m<sup>r</sup> Simon Davis and m<sup>r</sup> Joseph Baxus's Land on the Southerly Side of the former Road So on as the wall now stands till it Comes to the End of it and then to a white oak tree marked and then Straight to the bit of wall at the former Road by m<sup>r</sup> Cleaveland the wall and oke is on the Southerly Side of Said way and Said way is two Rods wide the Selectmen that Laid out this way was

Jonathan Hoopes
Phinehas of good

Acton January ye 30: 1748/9

Then Laid out a High way to accomodate Capt. Hapgoods place Begining at Said Hapgoods Lane to a Small Black oke and then to a white oke and then to a white oke and then to a pitch pine then to a heap of Stones on a Rock then to a Small black oke then to a black in m<sup>r</sup> Ferris pasture and then to a heap of Stones between the Brook and the House and then to a white oke in m<sup>r</sup> Joseph Ferris fence and then as the Lane now goes till it Comes to the former Road Said way is two Rods wide and the marks are on the westerly Side of Said way the Selectmen that Laid out this way was

Jonathan Hoopes
Phinehas of good

Acton February ye 13: 1748/9

Then Laid out a High way Begining at the Road that Leads from the westerly End of Said town to a grey oke then to a black oke then to a white oke then to a white oke and then Straight to the Corner of m<sup>r</sup> Baskers pasture wall Said marks are on the Northerly Side of Said way and then as the wall now stands Leaving m<sup>r</sup> Joseph Baskers House on the Right hand till it Corner the Corner of m<sup>r</sup> Baskers wall on the South Side of the way

where