

and then to a Grey oke on Ceser Freemans Land then to a white oke then to a white oke on Said Noyes Land then to a Small Grey oke then to a white oke then to a Small Grey oke then to a grey oke then to a pitch pine then to a Red oke then to a white oke then to a Grey oke then to a white oke then to a white oke then to grey oke then to a black oke then to a Grey oke then to a white oke then to a black oke then to a white oke then to a white oke then to a grey oke then to a heap of Stones on a Rock then to a maple then to a black oke then to a Red oke then to a grey oke then to a Grey oke then to a pitch pine then to a white oke then to a walnut then to a white oke at the Road that Leads from mr Allens to the meeting House Said way is two Rods wide and the marks are on the Northerly side of Said way

Jonathan Hosmer
 Daniel Fletcher Select men

February ye 10: 1753

Then we the Subscribers Laid out a Conveniant Bridle way for to accomodate mr Hugh Foster Begining at Said Fosters Land so Runing and mr William Wheelers wall Stands till it comes to the End of it then to a Great Rock then Streight to a heap of Stones by the Brook in mr Nathan Robbins Land then across the Brook to a white oke marked in Lieut Hunts pasture then Streight to the gap in the wall at the End of mr Abraham Woods House the Same is two Rods wide the marks are on the Northerly Side of Said way Said way is to have Conveniant Gates

Jonathan Hosmer
 Daniel Fletcher Select men