In the matter of the claim for pension #405569 of Elizabeth Hawscom as mother of Samuel C. Hawscom of Company A, 2 Regiment of Mass Cavalry Vols.:

Personally came before ~~me~~ the District Court of Central Middlesex in and for aforesaid County and State, Frank Tuttle and Horace Tuttle, a citizen of Concord, in the County of Middlesex, State of Massachusetts whom I believe to be reputable and entitled to credit, and who, being duly sworn, declare in relation to aforesaid claim, as follows:

That the husband of said Elizabeth survived the soldier, and died in 1869 dropping dead of heart disease, his health was failing in 1864 and for more than a year before the death of the soldier he was unable to do a days work, his family physician is dead, and I am unable to get any medical evidence of the husbands condition in 1864, but know he was feeble and unable to work a full day at that time and afterwards.
His age in 1864 was sixty four years, he had about an acre of land on which he raised garden vegetables kept one cow, and supported himself and wife from this and occasional jobs of work for neighbors he had no other property but this land and the tools thereon and his income did not exceed two hundred dollars a year from his labor and other sources. The real estate was located in South Acton, he bought it for $800 before 1860 and improved it by building a small barn at a cost of about $200.
The soldier sent his mother money from his enlistment bounty, and gave her money when he came home further declare that I have no interest in said case, and am not concerned in its prosecution.
