Middlesex ss. Hudson, December 10, 1897.

In the matter of claim for pension of Charlotte M. Pike of said Hudson, widow of George M. Pike, late of Co. B. 1st. Mass. Vol. Cav.

On the day and year first above written, personally appeared before me, a Justice of the Peace in and for the aforesaid Commonwealth, Charlotte M. Pike, the claimant, who first being duly sworn, deposes in relation to the aforesaid case as follows:-

1. That neither she nor the said George M. Pike had been married previous to their marriage to each other.
2. That the only property of any kind owned by her consists of homestead estate situate no. 19 Summer Street, in said Hudson, comprising forty rods, with a dwelling house thereon, the assessed value of which is $2100 and the actual value little if any more.

Also household furniture used by herself in housekeeping.

Also a claim against Arthur A. Pike of Auburn, Maine, amounting to $1800. Said Arthur A. Pike is an insolvent debtor and she has agreed to accept for said claim the sum of $360 and is in doubt as to whether she will ever receive the latter or even a smaller amount.

Said Summer Street estate is mortgaged to L. Lovina Stratton of said Hudson for $1000.

3. Her only income is received from her daily labor and since Sept. 18, 1897 she has earned nothing.
4. That she has disposed of no property since Sept. 18, 1897.
5. That no person is legally bound to provide support for her.

(1)

6. That the said George M. Pike did not serve in the military or naval service of the United States prior to September 21, 1862 or subsequent to June 26, 1865.
