 Surgeon
 26. Regt. Mass.
 U.S.A.

New-Orleans Sept. 20 - 1862.

The undersigned, Chaplain of the 26th Reg^t Mass. Vols, desires to express the warmest thanks to Abraham Lincoln (President), concerning the valuable services of Mr. Gray in the Campaign of '61; and also to add, that during the temporary absence of the surgeons of the 26th Reg^t, the Medical Director of the same directed almost exclusively upon Mr. Gray, and were by him performed in the most quick and effective manner.

Respectfully, Chaplain of the 26th Reg^t. Mass. Vols.

Sauve Barreche, New Orleans,
September 18th 1862-

W. H. Gray of the 26th Mass Regiment proposes to apply for a position as Acting Sergeant in the "Native Guards" now forming at this Barreche, and I gladly recommend him as a faithful, capable, temperate man.

Though he is not a graduate in medicine I am abundantly able to speak of his ability as a physician. He was hospital steward under my direction during the "three months" campaign in '61 - and has since for several months acted as assistant surgeon in the 26th Mass Regt. - and I know that he is competent to have the charge of sick soldiers. His military knowledge for the good of our sick soldiers since the commencement of the war we tell him to amuse him.

J. J. Davis,
Sergeant in Charge
Native Guards
Regiment.
